

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

GALES FERRY.

New Tennis for Larrabee Farm—Cottagers Coming Early—Personal Mention.

Several of the village residents took advantage of the closing of the local church for conferring Sunday school attend service at the Congregational church in Ledyard Center. Others attended services in Groton and New London.

Nelson Dewey, who has occupied the Larrabee farm, which is owned by Dr. Charles H. Graves of New London, for the past season, left Monday for his former home in Noank. Dr. Graves has engaged Wallace Norcross of Ledyard, a former resident of Alliance Point, to care for the place the coming year.

Mrs. Joab Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Burt and children of New London arrived last Saturday for a two weeks' stay at their summer home in the village.

Birthday Celebration.
Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Chapman of Alliance Point entertained friends in honor of the birthday anniversary of Chapman, Sunday evening. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beckwith of Moodus, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Noland of New London, and Mrs. Charles Beckwith of Alliance Point. The guests were entertained by Mr. Noland. Songs and games were other enjoyable features of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. John Thompson and her daughters, Misses Grace and Gladys, were guests for a few days last week of Mrs. Thompson's parents in Putnam. Alfred Palmer of Alliance Point is working on a farm in Putnam. Elmer Satterlee, who has been in Putnam since last week, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Satterlee, and Mrs. Mary Hurlbut left Thursday to spend a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Rowland H. Perkins, in New London.

Philadelphia Artist Looking at Farms.
Henry Singleton, a painter of Philadelphia, the artist who has been in the village about a month ago looking at farms in this locality, was a caller here Tuesday and Wednesday. A. M. Voorhees of Groton, L. I., was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Comstock.

Mrs. and Mr. Walter Beckwith, who were over Sunday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Cyrus Chapman, returned to their home in Moodus Monday afternoon.

J. P. Satterlee, who has been spending the winter in California and Washington, arrived from Seattle Saturday evening. Miss Susan Mathewson left the village Tuesday to spend a week in New York. She was accompanied by her sister, Mary Gibbs, who will spend the week as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. O. L. Morse at Port Washington, L. I.

Mrs. Harriet M. Bates and her daughter, Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Belden of Ledyard. Mrs. Horton and her daughter, Miss Helen Boynton, who were guests over Sunday of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Roach of Alliance Point, returned to Norwich Monday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Perkins returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Mystic. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Noyes.

Made Trip in Power Boat.
Oliver Morse, Jr., a student at Yale University, who spends his summers at the Yale variety quaters, stayed over night in the village last week, while on his way to spend his vacation with his father, Mr. Morse, in Groton, L. I. His brother, Antonia Morse, came on from Port Washington to make the trip with him in his power boat. Elsie Morse, who is now out for the winter in the village.

Mrs. Thomas Latham has been spending a few days at her son, Bradford Latham, in Guilford.

Miss Florence Hurlbut and Miss Katherine Kenney returned to their studies at East Norwich secondary Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pierce moved last week from the Rogers place in Quakerston, to the J. Maynard's farm at Alliance Point.

NORTH STONINGTON.

Pillar of Fire Disciples in Town—Special Services at Baptist Church.

A largely attended auction sale was held at the residence of George D. Thompson Monday.

George A. Thompson, who has been seriously ill, is so much better as to be out.

George E. Burdick has moved to the creamery building.

Benjamin P. Wheeler of West Hartford has been in town.

C. E. Williams of Northampton, Mass., is spending a few days here.

The Wheeler school has been having a week vacation.

An increased number of passengers are noted on the local trolley since the inauguration of the summer schedule.

Liquor prosecutions are in order, and dealers in the ardent are getting heavy fines.

Two apostles of sanctification all the way from Bound Brook, N. J., each bearing upon the front of his hat the announcement "Pillar of Fire," have worked the town this week.

Rev. N. B. Prindle of Preston closed Tuesday evening a series of weekly meetings which the cooperation of the pastor and members of the Third Baptist Church, he has held here.

Mr. Prindle has been in the village with characteristic zeal, and the services seemed helpful to all attendants.

GLASGO.

High Prices at Burdick Auction—Nice Spring Lamb.

Mrs. W. A. Littlefield and daughter Belle went to Norwich on Monday.

There is vacation in the Tenth school district for two weeks.

Things sold very high at the Burdick auction. Oxen went as high as $60.

Gladio mill has been idle to take account of stock.

Lyman Nye has 186 hens, most of them laying.

Farmers are plowing for oats.

Albert Burton has a fine lot of lambs.

Mrs. Ziba Hunting is home from the hospital, much improved in health.

Peter Mitchell caught a fine string of trout on Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Burton is improved much in health.

LIBERTY HILL.

Opening of Spring Term of School—Briefs and Personal.

Mrs. Walter Clearland, who has been in St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, for two weeks, returned home Wednesday.

J. George Clark is about, after a month's sickness with grip.

Mrs. E. A. Noyes has returned home, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Verplanck of South Manchester.

Miss B. B. Boyce, who teaches in Boston, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Noyes, during vacation.

Mrs. W. H. Peckham is caring for Mrs. Winfield Noyes at Willimantic.

The goods of Mr. Allen, who has hired the J. Henry Clark farm, arrived Tuesday.

Walter Clearland's sister, Mrs. Cun-

WINDHAM COUNTY.

SOUTH KILLINGLY.

Nelson Wheeler Assaulted on the Highway—R. F. D. Opposed—Illustrated Lecture Pleases Large Audience.

Mrs. J. Frank Eldridge is visiting in Fall River.

Mrs. Frank Leroy has gone to visit her mother in Washington, Conn.

Representative Wheeler of Lisbon recently visited his brother, Nelson Wheeler.

Miss Seagle and Master Aaron Vial of Sterling, were at the church Tuesday evening.

Clarence Long is working for Harvey Vial.

It is reported that Russell Hill has sold his farm.

Big fire around Mrs. Brown's house called out many citizens Monday night.

Assaulted by Three Men.

Nelson Wheeler was assaulted by three men Monday on his way from Danbury to Washington.

Everett Hall's grandchildren from Thompson are visiting here.

Hens Doing Their Full Duty.

J. J. Martin got 100 eggs a day from his mother in Washington.

Joshua Road is losing strength day by day, and may never be out again.

Opposing Rural Delivery.

Joshua E. Tillinghast has written a letter to Washington at the instance of a considerable number of citizens in opposition to the proposed R. F. D.

Interesting Lecture.

Judge Arthur Bill's stereoscopic lecture on Travels in Ireland was highly enjoyed by a large audience Tuesday evening.

Mr. Barton of Danbury, interesting to the Christian Endeavorers Sunday evening. He also gave pleasure by a solo.

Miss Gertrude Hall, a Putnam teacher, resides at Rev. Mr. Sargent's, leaves A. E. Hall's Saturday.

Easter Services.
The Easter exercises at the church next Sunday morning by the young people and children will be attractive.

Miss Eva Spaulding, who passed her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, returned to her school in Modus Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips visited the old home in Foster, Sunday.

Miss Anna E. Hall, a Putnam teacher, resumes her school work here next Monday.

Prof. Willis Shippes of Mashantucket will speak to the C. E. society Sunday evening.

To Raise a Mile of Pennies.
Rev. Virgil W. Blackman, acting for the Young Workers, begins a canvass of Danbury on Tuesday.

Miss Anna E. Hall, a Putnam teacher, resumes her school work here next Monday.

Prof. Willis Shippes of Mashantucket will speak to the C. E. society Sunday evening.

Plainsfield.
Hens as Money Makers—A. S. Joslyn of Norwich Buys House Site.

Motorman William Clark of Norwich called on friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips visited the old home in Foster, Sunday.

Miss Anna E. Hall, a Putnam teacher, resumes her school work here next Monday.

Prof. Willis Shippes of Mashantucket will speak to the C. E. society Sunday evening.

Plainsfield.
Hens as Money Makers—A. S. Joslyn of Norwich Buys House Site.

Motorman William Clark of Norwich called on friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips visited the old home in Foster, Sunday.

Miss Anna E. Hall, a Putnam teacher, resumes her school work here next Monday.

Prof. Willis Shippes of Mashantucket will speak to the C. E. society Sunday evening.

Plainsfield.
Hens as Money Makers—A. S. Joslyn of Norwich Buys House Site.

Motorman William Clark of Norwich called on friends here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips visited the old home in Foster, Sunday.

Miss Anna E. Hall, a Putnam teacher, resumes her school work here next Monday.

Prof. Willis Shippes of Mashantucket will speak to the C. E. society Sunday evening.

SCOTLAND.

Sunday School Elects Officers—Pleasant Evening at Grange.

Mrs. J. C. Taber and Miss Esther Taber were in Hartford Monday.

After spending the night in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Charlotte Taber and Mrs. Helen Ashland have returned to their home.

Mrs. Harriet Bass is recovering from a recent illness. Mrs. Julien Dorrance of Newark, N. J., is caring for her.

C. M. Smith has sold his place in the village formerly occupied by W. Watson, a resident of Scotland.

Mrs. E. G. Geer and daughters, Gladys and Beatrice, have returned from a brief visit with relatives in Norwich and vicinity.

Master Henry Clark is in Hartford during vacation, the guest of his brother, L. C. Clark.

Mrs. Lizzie Weaver returned on Monday from a stay in Norwich with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Fitch.

W. S. Gallup accompanied Representative A. H. Gallup to Hartford for the day on Sunday.

The Congregational Sunday school was reorganized on Sunday, the election of officers for the ensuing year resulting as follows: Superintendent, Mr. H. Barstow; assistant superintendent, Mrs. A. H. Gallup; treasurer and secretary, Miss Mary Smith.

Miss Mary Smith, with Mrs. L. C. Harkins and Miss Gertrude Brown as teachers. The attendance is from sixty to seventy on the average.

John Pellet of Plainfield is moving to the Tillinghast place in Kennedy City.

Pastor Butterfield did not arrive from Hartford in time for the Saturday evening service.

Miss Edythe Pearson of Norwich spent Sunday with Miss Mildred McStay.

Alonso Cook has moved to the Richmond place on Texas Heights.

Occupying the house formerly occupied by the Beaman and Hatch orchestra of Hartford, W. F. Maine has charge of the supper at C. Hatch of the program.

Deacon W. F. Maine is chairman of the table committee, and De Witt Lathrop is treasurer. This will be the best entertainment of the season.

Dr. P. T. Ingalls of Hartford was in town on Tuesday.

Miss Harriet and Julia Guild are spending the Easter vacation with relatives in Putnam.

Charles Keeney has accepted the position of house farmer for R. G. Watrous.

Mrs. Lillian Potter Daley of Hartford is at Frank Tillinghast's.

Mrs. F. E. Guild and son, Alan, have been in New York this week.

Mrs. Thomas of Norwich, who has been at home, has returned to the Wauregan, and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Johnson, is again at the Inn for a time.

CLARK'S CORNERS.
Visitors of the Week—Notes of Local Interest.

Martin Navins, Jr., of New Haven was in town Wednesday, and gave his friends a short call.

The number attended E. F. Botham's auction Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Martin were in Willimantic Tuesday.

W. N. Jewett, who sold three fine cows to E. Marior of Brooklyn.

Frank Botham of Providence, Albert Botham of Mansfield and Mrs. Ella C. Botham were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. S. H. Jewett is visiting her daughter in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitford are at their cottage at the Maples for a few days.

Mrs. Louisa Weldon and grandson were at E. P. Colburn's Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bakken are stopping at Captain Clark's.

Mr. Arthur Raclet and daughter of Willimantic were guests at P. J. Navins' Sunday.

A small house about half a mile south of the station, occupied by a gang of Italian woodchoppers, was burned to the ground Thursday afternoon. Nothing saved.

PHOENIXVILLE.
Death of Railroad Detective James L. Seaton.

James L. Seaton, who died Tuesday evening, had been employed by the N. Y. N. H. and H. railroad as a detective and had been quite successful.

His physician stated that the cause of the brain caused his death. He was well known in Windham county as well as in Hartford.

Oliver H. Latham is confined to the house by rheumatism.

George R. Spaulding has laid the sill for a new house between his house and P. R. Dickey's. The new house will be owned and occupied by his cousin, Ruelie Spaulding of Stamford, Conn., during the summer months.

ECONK.

Vacation in Many of the Schools—Plans for Easter Services.

This week is the Easter recess in most of the schools of the vicinity and in the neighboring villages.

Miss Nellie Gallup and Miss Esther Gallup, teachers in Moosup, are at their homes. Miss Ruby Keller, teacher in Central Village, is at the parsonage.

The White school is closed for the week. The school keeps right along without recess.

The Ekonk school had two weeks' recess and opened the spring term on Monday with Miss Maud Chapman as teacher.

Farmers are already plowing and working the fields.

Mr. Kellogg attended the New London county association of Congregational ministers in Norwich on Tuesday and read a paper on "The Minister" to them.

Special Easter services will be observed tomorrow (Sunday) in the Lino meeting house.

Mrs. Edward Pratt is in poor health.

Mrs. E. Byron Gallup is much better.

The ladies of the Sterling Hill Baptist church held an interesting entertainment with refreshments on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fred L. Bennett and daughter, Miss Estella May, were in Hampton Saturday last.

There is a church in town planning for a concert Easter Sunday.

There seems to be no end to the wild geese. The older people say they never saw so many and such big flocks as this spring.

WILSONVILLE.
Miss Hattie Jennings visited in New Boston one day last week.

Mrs. Irving Adams is visiting her son and family in Hartford.

Mrs. Agnes L. Clate of Boston is visiting her mother here.

The funeral of William Jack was held at his home Monday at 2 o'clock. Relatives from Boston, Woodstock, Springfield, Norwich and Thompsonville attended. The bearers were four nephews. Rev. Mr. Filmer of Webster preached the sermon. Burial was in local cemetery.

Quite a number of fires were started by a freight train that went toward Norwich Thursday.

CENTRAL VILLAGE.

Musicians Return from Bahama Islands—Child Caught Fingers in Wringing Machine—News Items.

Mortimer Sletton entertained his sister, Miss Sletton, of Norwich Sunday.

Augustus Mathewson of Fall River, Mass., spent Sunday at Philip Mathewson's.

Mrs. George Parent and little daughter, Bertha, visited at Miss Mary Burke's Sunday.

George Carey of Norwich spent Sunday at Ledyard with his brother, E. J. Carey.

Mrs. Edward Spicer, Miss Marjorie Spicer and Curtis Bushnell of North Chatham received the wife of baptism at St. Paul's church last Sunday.

George S. Manley and son, Clarence, were in Springfield, Mass., from Monday to Wednesday.

Special Easter Service.
There will be a special musical service at the Congregational church tomorrow morning.

The South Windham choir will unite with the local choir, and they will be assisted by Miss Edith Larkham, soprano; Alfred Card, tenor; and L. C. Card, violin, and under the direction of Rev. W. S. Kelsey. The programme will include: "The Lord of Glory Lay, solo; violin obligato and chorus; chorus, "Unfold Thy Portals (Redemption), full choir; and "The Easter Message, Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational church are planning for a supper next week.

The Sunday school under the leadership of Mr. H. C. Lathrop.

Miss Helen Larrabee returned to her school at Simmons college, Boston, on Monday.

Celebration of Holy Eucharist.
At St. Paul's church tomorrow morning at 8.30 there will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, with special Easter music. At 8.30 in the afternoon festival evensong. On Monday at 10.30 a. m. Bishop Brewster will be present and administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Men Planning Supper.
The men of the Congregational